

Experience a culinary fishing adventure with Chef Jamie Kennedy

May 5th, 2011 10:36 am ET

By Michele Peterson

Toronto Culinary Travel Examiner

More from this Examiner

Like this? Receive automatic updates

Chef Jamie Kennedy will host Fish, Forage and Fun

Credits: Jamie Kennedy Restaurants

 Like

Share:

If your idea of a Fish Fry is more than holding a frying pan over an open fire and cracking open a can of pork and beans, then you're going to want to mark your calendar for the Fish, Forage & Fun event hosted by the West Coast Fishing Club this summer. Scheduled to take place at The Outpost in B.C. on July 4-8, 2011, Chef Jamie Kennedy -- owner of acclaimed Toronto restaurants the Gardiner Café, Gilead Café and Bistro -- will host a luxury culinary adventure which includes wine pairings, explorations of terroir-based gastronomy and one-on-one cooking demonstrations. Guests will explore the Pacific coast wilderness by fishing for salmon and halibut, beachcombing and hiking.

West Coast Fishing Club's gastronomic experiences are some of Canada's most exciting adventures. Entering its fifth year, the popular David Hawksworth & Friends Culinary Adventure is held at The Clubhouse on Langara Island from July 24-28, 2011. The retreat is hosted by legendary Chef David Hawksworth, fresh from the opening of his first self-titled restaurant - Hawksworth - at Vancouver's historic Rosewood Hotel Georgia.