

EXPERIENCE THE FLOATING

lap of luxury

Anchored in scenic Beal Cove on the southwest side of Langara Island, North Island Lodge is a floating lodge that offers rustic charm and swift access to your next Salmon fishing adventure. Located just minutes from some of the world's most productive fishing grounds, the waters surrounding the lodge are also a playground for many of nature's wonders.

North Island Lodge is the quaint, cozy sister of the three northern West Coast Fishing Club properties: modest on the outside, but luxurious on the inside. A favorite among ardent anglers, North Island Lodge attracts a long list of regular guests who return year after year for its relaxed, friendly atmosphere and unparalleled fishing.

welcome to north island lodge

the resort experience Renowned for its world class service, comfortable accommodation for up to 24 guests, and superb dining, North Island Lodge offers guests the unique experience of having lines in the water while others are just getting started.

Enjoy personalized service in the guest lounge, complete with large-screen satellite televisions and wet bar. Relax in the cozy and plush facilities, catch up on the day's fishing stories around the fire, or take in your own personal ocean view from one of the 12 guest rooms, each suitable for both single and double-occupancy and complete with private en-suite.

world-class fishing A paradise for first-timers and expert anglers alike, North Island Lodge offers guided or self-guided packages. Safe and reliable Eaglecraft fishing boats, featuring top-of-the-line equipment are literally at your door-step, meaning that Langara Island's world-famous Salmon fishing is just minutes away.
